Pittsburgh Opera announces Anthony Rutigliano as newest Board of Directors member

Pittsburgh Opera announces that Anthony Rutigliano has joined their Board of Directors.

Rutigliano is Vice President, Talent Management & Organizational Analytics at Highmark Health. In his distinguished career, Rutigliano has centralized employee-development and talent management at ADP, launched and developed Gallup's Employee-Engagement Practice, and managed the largest client in IBM/Kenexa history, among other things. He also co-authored two best-selling business books about sales and sales management: Strengths-Based Selling and Discover Your Sales Strengths.

"We are delighted to welcome Anthony to our Board," said Pittsburgh Opera General Director Christopher Hahn. "He brings a wealth of valuable insights and experience, and strengthens our organization." Adds Board Chair Michele Fabrizi, "Growing our Board remains a priority for Pittsburgh Opera. Anthony is the kind of proven leader that every organization would love to have as a Board member."
